OUR NEW REFLECTION ROOM!

We are delighted to unveil the Reflection Room in school. This is a room where Big Questions (about the world around us, or about ourselves) and issues of spirituality can be explored in a safe space. The winning design by Gracie in 5/6J which decorates the space was chosen by the Worship Leaders, and includes English, Welsh, Polish and Bulgarian phrases that we use in school.

Sessions for all pupils will start after the Whitsun holiday.

JUBILEE LUNCH

Please remember that children are allowed to dress up as Royalty for our street party on the 27th May!

The Mayor of Welshpool and the Mace Bearer will be joining us too.

JUBILEE PARADE!

All pupils will be parading through town on May 24th wearing crowns and tiaras as part of a competition run by Welshpool Town Council. Please look out for the children as they parade—it will be a sight to behold!

SCHOOL ENVIRONMENT

As you all know we are working hard to make improvements to the school environment. We are having to do this via grant funding.

The Sports Wales Grant that is enabling us to renovate the school field is well underway.

Phase 2 starts on Monday 23rd May when the contractors will be stripping away all the dead grass.

Also next week we are starting the next phase of the playground markings. The pupils have all voted for which marking they would like, and we expect this work to be completed over the week ahead. We are grateful for a financial contribution from Mr and Mrs Longshadow towards these markings.

There may be some disruptions to picking up your child/ren at the back of the school, so please look out for notices asking you to pick up from an alternative door.

Thank you.

AFTER SCHOOL CLUBS

The final sessions for rugby and football clubs for this half term will be on Wednesday 25th May.

These clubs will be running again on Wednesdays after the half term break for children who were not successful in getting a space at the club on the first occasion. So, if you child/ren would like to attend and didn't get this chance, please let the office know. If we have spare places, they will be offered out for the second time.
