PEACE EDUCATION VOLUNTEERS

Would you like to train to deliver Peace Education in schools?

The Peaceful Schools project offers to schools a free 6-hour volunteer led programme exploring the theme of conflict and peace. It is a response to the culture of violence and hostility witnessed in our society. Their aim is to create an atmosphere in schools where pupils treat each other with respect, work co-operatively, and have the basic skills to resolve problems constructively. This is a free training course for anyone interested in peace education at primary level. If you are interested, please contact Barbara Grantham coordinator@addysgheddpeaceedu.org.uk or Helen Porter helenporter@phonecoop.coop
