Spring Term 2021 Week 8

			This week's topic is:
	Great at Grammar!	Direction and Position	Six Nations Rugby
Monday Remember to read and complete the Sumdog tasks today!	Today's task is all about word classes. First, watch the video on the Google Classroom to recap the different types of words we use every day. Can you sort the words into their correct types? Can you think of your own examples of these word types?	Use Google Maps (https://www.google.com/maps/@52.6579581,-3.150375,14z) to work out the direction of North, East, South and West. Make an 8-point compass and place it in your home/garden. Using the directions, complete the sentences attached to show the position of various landmarks near your home.	We are in the heart of the Six Nations Rugby competition and Wales are currently in first position! (YAAAY!). Follow the instructions on Google Classrooms for more information: > Research 2 of the countries taking part in the competition. Use Adobe Spark Post/Page/Video to present your work. > Learn the Welsh National Anthem and record yourselves singing it. Research some of the words and meanings behind it.
Tuesday Remember to read and complete the Sumdog tasks today!	Today's task is all about alliteration. Watch the video attached to the Google assignment. After this, record yourself having a go at the tongue twisters which use alliteration. Can you create your own?	Using the attached map and grid of Welshpool, follow the directions and record where you land on your sheet. Once you've completed this, challenge your teacher with your own directions to see if they can follow!	> Design your own 6 Nations Trophy. You can either do this on paper or create a 3D model using materials from around the house. > Follow a rugby workout to become the ultimate rugby player!
Wednesday Remember to read and complete the Sumdog tasks today!	Today's task is all about onomatopoeia. First, watch the video which explains what onomatopoeia is. Then, have a go at creating onomatopoeia words for the different scenarios listed on the Google doc.	On your daily exercise, record the journey you take using positional vocabulary. This could even be a walk to school ready for your return! There are some ideas on Google Classroom to help you do this!
Thursday Remember to read and complete the Sumdog tasks today!	Today's task is all about similes. Learn some popular similes that you may hear often. Then, have a go at creating your own. See the assignment for further details.	Make an obstacle course around your house/garden. Can you use positional language to direct your BLINDFOLDED family around the house/garden to the finish line?	Google Classroom has all the information you need!
Friday Remember to read and complete the Sumdog tasks today!	Google Classroom: Take a look at some of the work uploaded to Google Classroom. Using 2 stars a , assess your friend's work. Friday's Burning Question: Respond to this week's challenge that has been posted on Google Classroom My Week: Complete the template about your week on Google Classroom.

For extra work, please access the lessons on BBC Bitesize and the CBBC live lessons. You can also use Times Table Rockstars and Numbots to practise your times tables as well as the Oxford Owl Reading Tree to practise your reading if you like.
